Re: AT&T Enterprises, LLC v. Atos IT Solutions and Services, Inc. Case No. 01:23-cv-01395

Dear Judge Liman:

As counsel to Defendant Atos IT Solutions and Services, Inc. ("Atos"), we write pursuant to Attachment A (Procedure for Sealed or Redacted Filings) of Your Honor's Individual Practices in Civil Cases (the "Sealing Procedures").

Contemporaneous with this letter, Atos filed a discovery dispute letter motion. Atos's letter motion refers to and relies on documents produced by AT&T and designated as Confidential under the Protective Order. Those documents are Exhibits C and H to Atos's letter motion. Under Section 4(b) of the Sealing Procedures, Atos requests that the Court grant the parties one week to confer about the Confidential exhibits so AT&T may assess whether sealing or redactions may be warranted.

Atos takes no position on whether the exhibits are properly sealed and defers to AT&T to elaborate on the need for sealing or redactions in any letter motion it files under Section 4(b) of the Sealing Procedures.

Respectfully submitted,

DLA Piper LLP (US)
